

Let's Talk Movies!

An Education Series sponsored by The Little Art Theatre

Join us for our new series!

Dr. Nicole Richter is President of FilmDayton and Associate Professor in, and Coordinator of, the Wright State Motion Pictures Program. She teaches courses in film criticism, with special emphasis on feminist issues and sexuality. She founded KinoFemme, a women's filmmaking collective, to support the production of women's independent media. She has published essays in Feminism at the Movies, the Journal of Bisexuality, Short Film Studies and Queer Love in Film and Television.

March 1st
2PM-3:30PM

Guest Speaker

Dr. Nicole Richter

Topic

Where are all the women film directors?

Women are underrepresented behind the camera in cinema, but that doesn't prevent women filmmakers from fighting against the odds to produce masterpieces of cinema. This talk will look at contemporary women's independent film production from a global perspective.

Join us for...

- A view from local film enthusiasts
- Variety of related film clips
- Lively discussion on how the concepts connect with our world

April 5th
11AM-12:30PM

Guest Speaker

Dean Leonard, Sinclair

Topic

Avant-Garde Cinema (experimental) featuring clips from Un Chien Andalou, Meshes of the Afternoon, Fireworks

First Saturday, September - April

$5 per ticket - purchase at the door

Little
Art
Theatre

Drinks and snacks will be available for purchase

The best place to watch a movie, together.